FINE ARTS ACADEMY OF INDIA PRESENTS

Ramdas Palsule and Ken Zukerman on Table and Sarod

Mr. Ramdas is a very familiar name in Hindustani music as an intellectual Tabla player. In addition to having a Bachelor's degree in Engineering, he has been recognized as one of the most senior disciples of world famous Tabla Maestro Taalyogi Pandit Suresh Talwalkar.

Ken Zukerman is internationally acclaimed as one of the finest Sarod players and has been a disciple of the legendary, late Sarod Master Ustad Ali Akbar Khan, for 37 years.

Place: 9313 Salisbury Avenue, Lubbock, Time: 5pm, Date: April 17th, 2011, Ticket: $10 per Person.

Shashank Subramanyam on Flute, Akkarai S. Subhalakshmi on Violin and Parupalli S. Phalgun on Mridangam

At the age of 12, Shashank Subramanyam took the music world by storm with a stunning flute performance at The Music Academy of Madras, in 1990. He is the youngest musician in the history of South Indian Music to have performed the prestigious "SADAS" concert, often performed by legends of Indian Music, at The Music Academy in Chennai. Since then he has performed and taught in many prestigious institutions across India and around the world.

Akkarai S Subhalakshmi: A child prodigy, now one of the most prominent artists in Carnatic music. Subhalakshmi is a disciple of her father Shri S. Swamynathan, and also received training under the late Shri V. Janakiraman.

Parupalli S Phalgun: An extremely talented as well as dynamic performer, Phalgun was trained from the age of five under the late Mr. Radhakrishna Raju, Mr. V. Balaji, and under the Late Mr. M.L.N. Raju of AIR Vijayawada.

Place: Louise Hopkins Underwood Center for the Art, 511 Ave. K, Lubbock TX 79401, Time: 7pm, Date: May 7th, 2011, Free to all classical music lovers.
